The fulfilment of these requirements must be certified by appropriate documentation attesting their registration or by an affidavit, which should be enclosed with the publications.

Texts that have been accepted for publication must be accompanied by appropriate documentation confirming their acceptance without the need for further changes.

Internal notes and departmental reports are not considered publications.

- f) a signed list of all the documents and qualifications submitted with the application;
- g) a signed list containing the titles of all the publications submitted with the application;
- h) copy of a valid identity document.

This administration reserves the right to carry out appropriate checks, including sample checks, in order to verify the accuracy of the statements.

Citizens of countries outside the European Union living legally in Italy can use the affidavits, referred to in Articles 46 and 47 of D.P.R. No. 445/2000, limited to personal qualities and certifiable facts by Italian public bodies pursuant to Article 3 of the D.P.R.

Regarding production of certificates and affidavits, see the D.P.R. No. 445/2000, in particular Articles 3, 40-47.

Reference to qualifications, documents or publications already presented to Politecnico di Torino in other competitions is not permitted.

Publications, documents and certificates in English, French or Spanish can be presented in their original languages. Publications, documents and certificates in other languages must be presented in their original language and translated into Italian, English, French or Spanish. The translation must be certified as being faithful to the text in the original language.
